Dear Mrs. Qualtrough,

Thank you very much for your letter of 26th November. I am sorry that you have had so much trouble contacting us.

We would be very pleased to see your husband and son on Thursday 3rd December. The train which should suit them best leaves Lime Street, Liverpool, at 10.15 a.m. and arrives at Euston Station, London, at 2.05 p.m.

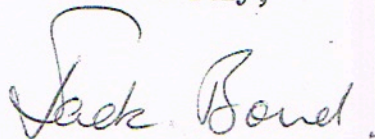

We will have a taxi waiting for them at Euston to bring them to Television Centre. When they arrive, they should ask the Commissionaire to direct them to Presentation 'A' Studio which is on the fourth floor, where we will be waiting.

~~After the programme a taxi will take them back to Euston Station for~~ the 6.10 p.m. train, which arrives at Lime Street at 10.00 p.m.

Also after the programme we would be glad to reimburse them for train fares to the sum of £7. 5s. 6d.

Looking forward to the visit,

Yours sincerely,

(Jack Bond)
